Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1945,
In memory of a pal so dear,
Who's gone from this world of strife,
To a Better World, a second life.
So—to a friend we all have known
We do dedicate this Rosebud,
To our classmate, Herbert Owen.

A Child Dreams

A little child delights to dream
And build his castles in the air.
Each season brings a new dream chest
Of treasures that are waiting there.

The Winter's chest is full of toys.
He sees a train, a bat and ball,
A lighted tree, a horn and drum
And knows that Santa Claus has come.

In Spring's chest are treasures too,
A dream of flowers, green grass and trees.
His skates are busy, and marbles fly,
And school days have about gone by.

His chest of Summer dreams is full.
Of big ice cream cones and picnic joys.
Of long sunny days to romp and play
When cares and lessons seem far away.

In Fall his dreams are filled with colors
Of falling leaves and bonfires bright
He sees jack-o-lanterns and turkeys too,
And hears school bells ring loud and true.

Oh, let him dream the whole year through
Of happy days and childhood joys
For only once, does he live inside
The treasure land of girls and boys.

"The Class of Forty-Five"

CLASS POEM

We're the Seniors of Waterloo High—the class of '45,

We are the class that gets around and really acts alive;

With a play, our sports, contests and things,
A Rosebud and Trail Blazer done in style fit for a king.

Blondie Myers, our President, is not so very tall,
But he's stern, sturdy and he rules over all;
Junior Hilkey, the Vice, whose past is not clear,
Takes over the work when the President is not here.

Dee Johnson, our Secretary, a small little lass,
Takes care of our money, and takes care of our class;
Gene Bowman, the lad, with the keenest of mind,
Can answer a question of most any kind.

Joan Smith, our Historian, who's cheery and bright,
Doesn't like Chemistry but says Governments all right;
Betty Greer, whose hair is a bright, golden red,
When asked if she wants black says she'd rather be dead.

Dallas Myers, a great guy, no better to be had,
Gets around quite a lot for a shy little lad;
Rosie Donaldson, our queen, who's jolly and gay,
Plays "hookey" at least once every other day.

Tom Hoxie, a lad, who's here every day,
Keeps coming and coming and can't stay away;
Bonnie Roush, a wee lass, who is rather small,
It's a wonder she's not lost in the fast rushing hall.

The same for Iris Leins, who's also very small,
But she gets around and finds her classes one and all;

LaMor Imhoff, who with songs, has the girls weeping,
Sings all the time except when he's sleeping.

Doris Ann Smith, a lass who does mighty fine,
Works down in the office keeping track of the time;
Donald Smith, a poor guy, who the girls do chase,
Sneaks off by himself to some lonely place.

Howard Bowman, a lad, who has taken a lot of sass,
Can always be found eating between every class;
Bob Bainbridge, a lad, who is from the farm,
To man, beast, or bird, he would do no harm.

Rae Johnson, a lass, who is always nigh,
Only perks up when a sailor passes by;
Eileita Roop and Ruth Bowman who are always together,
Can always be seen in fair or stormy weather.

Mildred Barnhart, a blonde, with eyes of blue,
Keeps telling the teachers she has nothing to do;
Marilyn Luce, a lass, who's really not fat,
Can be heard at any time just talking of "Satt."

Roy Witt, a lad, took many extra courses,
So he could graduate early to join the Armed Forces;

Jim Stonebraker, is a guy who is very, very coy,
And with his bright jokes has ruined many a boy.

Now this, our class, to the world, I know,
Will give their best wherever they go;
We will help each other, and others too,
To make this world a better place for you.

—Junior Hilkey

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

May 20, 1954.

My dear Deloris:

While doing my spring house cleaning the other day, I ran across the old 1945 annual and our school pictures. It immediately brought back memories of our school days and the good times we had together.

Remember how Rosie Donaldson was always flirting? She is still at it, for in the Waterloo Times the other day was a picture of her, Howard Bowman, the former Notre Dame football coach, and Dallas Myers, the famous author whose latest book is "HOW TO RIDE A MOTORCYCLE IN THREE EASY LESSONS." It seems Rosie had promised to marry both of them and now she is breaking their hearts for someone else.

And Marilyn Luce is now Mrs. Albert Sattison. At present she is teaching her two lovely daughters how to run a beauty salon on Michigan Avenue in Chicago.

In the latest Movieland Magazine you will find a picture of Milly Barnhart, the newest Hollywood motion picture star, who is now co-stared with Bud Abbott and Lou Costello in "The Three Stooges." She still has her cap set for the famous multi-millionaire, Gene Bowman, who made his millions by inventing the famous "Airplane without Wings," that you have heard so much about lately.

Oh, yes, you remember LaMar Imhoff, the boy who was the crooner of Waterloo? He was the star of the Hit Parade and idol of the "Bobby Socks" crowd until he caught claustrophobia which cracked his voice.

In last night's paper was a picture of Aurelia Johnson, who has just returned from Paris where she has been studying art. She has taken a position as cartoonist for Esquire and is using Margaret O'Brien, the famous model, for her illustrations.

On a news broadcast this morning, I heard that our bashful classmate Bob Bainbridge is one of the world's greatest heroes. It seems that while he was in Japan (what is left of it) he rescued some American prisoners yet held from World War II. Among them was Roy Witt, the famous Navy Lieutenant.

Also in the paper was an article on Jim Stonebraker who is still wrecking cars. Oh, well, it doesn't surprise me, since he now owns a combined car lot and junk yard, and he has to have something to run his business.

Of course you remember our faithful secretary, Dee Johnson? She has given up teaching jitter-bugging to the natives of Hawaii and she and that well-known Waterloo play girl, Jo Smith, have gone into "Darkest Africa" hunting that handsome hunk of man, Tarzan.

And Eileita Roop is now married to the manager of the J. J. Newberry 5 and 10 at Auburn. I don't know which is the boss, he or she.

Iris Leins finally chose one of her many boy friends to settle down with and is now living at the home of her father-in-law, John Shore, while her husband, Quenton, is away on a business trip.

And little Blondie Myers is now living in an igloo with his eskimo wife. At the present they are raising penguins, and have employed Bonnie Roush as a nursemaid to care for their penguins. It seems Bonnie has fallen for a cute eskimo, and the Blondie Myers' may soon have to find a new nursemaid.

By the way, Tom Hoxie has recently won the title from Charles Atlas as the "World's Most Perfectly Developed Man." Despite his fame he is going ahead with his life long ambition of selling hot dogs in Siberia.

Have you read anything in the papers about New York's famous District Attorney, B. L. Greer? You have probably guessed by this time that she is none other than our Betty Greer. She has been seen about town lately with Don Smith, the President and Chief Director of the "Inter-World of Sports Affiliation for the Betterment of Athletic Subtilization." Before he was elected he was the famous coach at Northwestern who initiated the still more famous basketball play called "The Smith System."

How are you and your husband doing on your rattlesnake farm in the "wilds" of Arizona? I would love to come out and visit you, but you see I am allergic to rattlesnakes.

One of the passengers injured in the recent airplane crash on the west coast, was our classmate, Doris Ann Smith. She was better known as Madame Chichi La-Rouge, the famous night club singer. She was on her way to Reno for her ninth divorce.

Last and least is our romantic Junior Hilkey, who now lives in Arabia. He is still hunting pretty girls for his Follies of 1955. At present, he is trying to decide whether to keep on with his search in the East or come back to the U. S. and find something better to do with his money.

Well, it's time to close for now so good luck and so long for this year.

Yours truly,

Ruth Bowman

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We, the class of 1945, started our long hard path of knowledge under the supervision of Miss Bolton. Our other grade teachers were Miss Newcomer, Miss Hamman, Miss Dirrim, Mr. McIntosh, Mr. Gurtner and Mr. Bowers.

In 1941, our Freshman year, we were guided by Miss Deer and Mr. Smith. Miss Fuchshuber and Mr. Bohr were our sponsors in our Sophomore year until Mr. Bohr, who entered the service, was replaced by Mr. Heywood. Due to another call from Uncle Sam, Miss Fuchshuber was left to carry on alone until Mr. Leslie came.

In our Junior year Mr. Leslie was our sponsor. Our main events were the purchase of our class rings and our class play, "Campus Quarantine."

This year, our Senior and last year of high school, Mrs. Voss is our home-room teacher. We've sold magazines and collected paper to raise money for our annual. Although several of our classmates have gone into the service, we still retain our class spirit and will remember the dreams of the past and look forward to the dreams of the future.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of '42" 49 eager freshmen enrolled in the Waterloo High School. We had a grand time under the leadership of Miss Vera Howell and we learned quite a bit.

Next year we started out as sophomores with 50 pupils. That year our sponsor was Miss Fender.

Now as Juniors we have 45 pupils. We have accomplished quite a bit, having sponsored a skating party, a successful play, and two dances. We gave the annual reception for the Seniors as well. The members of our class have worked hard on these and other projects and have done well. Our able sponsor this year has been Mr. Leslie whose time and efforts have been greatly appreciated.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1935 the class of '47" began their career in the old building under the leadership of Miss Ruth Bolton, with the enrollment of twenty-seven. In 1936 the enrollment was thirty-two and Miss Barbara Brandon was our teacher. Our guide in 1937 was Miss Marguerite Hamman with the enrollment of thirty pupils. In the year 1940, Mr. Bruce Gurtner promoted us to the Junior High. Mr. Clarence Bowers was our guide in the Junior High grades and during our Freshman year. The enrollment in the Freshman year was fifty.

Our sponsor in our Sophomore Class was Miss Ethel Yoder. She led us successfully with the enrollment of 44. Due to the loss of Claude Buss, we now have only forty-three.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

The class of '48' started on its long journey for knowledge in 1936 with 30 pupils under the leadership of Miss Ruth Bolton. Miss Brandon and Miss Hamman guided most of us successfully through the second and third grades. In the fourth and fifth grades, Miss Dirrim and Mr. McIntosh gave us a helping hand. From the sixth grade Mr. Gurtner passed us into Jr. High. Our home room teachers in Jr. High were Mr. Shore and Mr. Blomeke.

On September 1, 1944, 40 boys and girls enrolled in the Freshman class. We now have 46. Mr. Bowers is our faculty advisor.

Everyone will remember the exciting Halloween Party at Kutzner's on October 30. We rode to the woods on hay racks drawn by tractors. There we roasted hot dogs and drank cider around a large bon-fire. In December we gave a skating party.

GRADE TEACHERS

MISS MARGUERITE HAMMAN — Grade Three. She lives with her mother and likes to go shopping.

MR. GURTNER—Grade Six. Bruce has done carpenter work in the summer for the past few years and confidentially, he likes to fish.

MISS CLEO DIRRIM — Grade Four. She likes to travel and likes good shows. She delights in playing a joke on someone.

MRS. MILDRED THOMPSON—Grade One. Due to illness in the family, she works at home in the summer. She is planning for her future home with her husband, who is in the service.

MRS. FLORABELLE KUEHN — Grade Five. She has spent one year in welfare work and has traveled every summer.

MRS. NED McINTOSH — Grade Two. She worked in the office at Willow Run before coming back to teaching. Incidentally, she likes to sing.

MR. JOHN SHORE — Grade Seven. John does farming in the summer or does he just like to play with the tractor? He did some traveling before gas was rationed.

MR. NED McINTOSH—Grade Eight. He worked two years at the Willow Run Bomber Plant before coming back to teaching. Ned likes to fish, too.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1937 thirty-four pupils enrolled in the first grade of the Waterloo Public School with Miss Maxine Bickel as our teacher. Most of us passed safely into the second grade, our teacher being Miss Wisner. In the third and fourth grades Miss Hamman and Miss Dirrim did their best to increase our knowledge. In the fifth and sixth grades we were under the guidance of Mr. McIntosh and Mr. Gurtner. We then advanced to Junior High School. In our first year of Junior High Mr. C. S. Overmyer instructed us. This year the eighth grade has twenty-six pupils; thirteen girls and thirteen boys and Mr. McIntosh is our teacher. Twelve of the original class remain to graduate. One of our special activities this year was packing boxes for the Red Cross to be sent overseas for foreign children. Our class officers are:

Miss Cleo Dirrim was our teacher. Mr. O. H. Messmore helped us through the fifth grade with an enrollment of twenty-nine members. Mr. Gurtner passed us into the Jr. High.

Mr. Shore and Mr. McIntosh are our teachers this year. We have thirty-four in our class now. We have had two class parties, a Halloween Party at the home of Mr. Shore and a Valentine Party here at school.

We got an early start this year toward our yearbook by electing the annual staff in September. Several themes were suggested, "Dreaming" being the one finally selected. We have tried to make this our dream book.

The first class to publish a yearbook chose the name Rosebud because—well here is how the first editor of the yearbook Russell Matson, explains it:

"As I recall, we as the 'Seven Wonders of the World' as we thought, got together and decided that at first there should be a bud and then later this might unfold into a beautiful flower. And the rose is the favorite of so many. To our surprise the next volume turned out to be 'Debris.' Why the class that followed should choose such a name we never did learn. As Juniors they seemed to have a fair degree of intelligence. Since then, however, every volume has been called the 'Rosebud.' "

This annual was financed by selling magazines and conducting paper drives, and the sale of advertising space. It has been very difficult to secure covers, film, and to get our engraving work done. Despite these handicaps we feel we have done our best. We wish to thank all who have helped to make this yearbook possible and we hope that you appreciate our efforts.

PAPER STAFF

I am the spirit of W. H. S.
 'Tho my keepers toil, I am still called a mess.
 I tell of our team's fame
 Which grows with each game
 And other interests of school, more or less.

The printing, the drawings, the jokes are criticized.
 When they read the scandal they say "Oh, you have lied."
 They don't like the work
 They read with a smirk
 I have not accomplished what I tried.

To achieve glory has never been my ambition
 Just to improve with each and every edition
 But I am read by all
 And TRAIL BLAZER has been my name, through tradition.

The Waterloo Hi-Y began its second year after the present organization by outlining its program for the year. Five new members were voted in and then subjected to an initiation. The Hi-Y undertook several projects during the year, among them underwriting the USO drive. Mr. Leslie was one of the several speakers invited to lecture during the year. Pins and membership cards came in February. The Girl Reserves and Hi-Y jointly held a carnival in the spring to raise funds for a school movie projector. The Hi-Y was entertained by the Girl Reserves at parties and programs. An initiation was held in the spring using an original ritual prepared by the club. New officers were elected for the following year.

GIRL RESERVES

The purpose of the Girl Reserve Club is to stand united in a common purpose, working together in Christian fellowship. To help us attain our purpose and goal for the year, we had the worthy services of the following girls as our leaders: President, Rosemary Donaldson; Vice President, Joan Smith; Secretary-Treasurer, Betty Greer.

During the past year we have tried to achieve the purpose of the club in our meetings which were held twice each month. Interesting and inspirational talks, discussions and debates were given by both students and teachers.

The fun of our first activity of the year was shared with the Hi-Y boys in the form of a Hallowe'en party and dance. At Christmas time we packed boxes of fruit, cookies and candy and sent them to the hospitals at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Battle Creek, and Indianapolis. We also sponsored the sale of hot dogs at the home games and had charge of the War Stamp Booth all year.

This year the Future Farmers had an enrollment of 46 members in their club, and the above officers were elected. On October 25th the Waterloo Chapter sent the officers to Columbia City for District Conference to plan programs for the year.

On November 15th we were invited to a skating party presented by the Garrett Chapter. On December 15th our pest contest was started, the West Side vs. the East Side. It was a scrap until the finish, when De-Von Myers of the East side brought in his points totalling 14,450 points. It made the East side the winner of the contest. So the West side had to furnish a party which was given on the eighth day of February. The Waterloo Chapter also sponsored a skating party on January 23rd. They invited the following Chapters: Auburn, Garrett, Spencerville, Butler, and Ashley.

Speaker: Joan Smith.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

The public speaking class studied many new phases of the subject. At first we became acquainted by extemporaneous and prepared speeches about ourselves. Next came the Christmas play entitled "The Children of the Inn." We also studied choral reading. We read Luke II.

We studied debating. We then had many debates in class on various subjects. We had an affirmative and a negative team go to Fort Wayne to debate with students from Concordia and North Side schools. Our representatives were Jr. Hilkey, Jim Hamilton, Joan Smith, and Gene Bowman. The question debated was Resolved: that the legal voting age should be lowered to 18.

We also sent two representatives to North Side to discuss the question: Should the AAA be abolished? A recording was made and broadcast over WOWO. Those who represented us were Vincent Girardot, and Max Aldrich. There were five others who were sent as questioners.

Declamations and readings were memorized and delivered in assembly programs. Orations were studied and written. An oration contest was held. A prize was given to the winner, DeVon Myers.

WE LIKE TO PLAY

S P O R T S

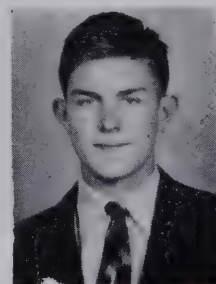

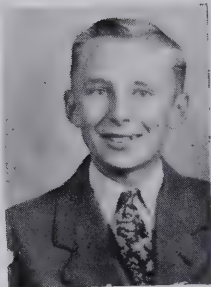

SPORTS

Waterloo High School is a three sport school. During the early fall we play baseball. This usually lasts from four to five weeks, ending with the baseball tourney with the other members of the conference schools who play baseball. This year those schools were Angola, Ashley, Butler, Fremont, and Waterloo.

Our spring sport is track. In the last few years we have again started to climb toward the top in track. That is a fine sport for any boy who has a speciality as running, jumping, or valuting. This sport gives opportunities to a large number of boys who often cannot make the other teams.

The major sport of this school is basketball. There are several reasons for this. It has a longer season than the other two, it comes at a time when fans can attend the contest. This sport provides the necessary money to finance our entire athletic program. Basketball is also a field where many boys can compete. During the last year thirty boys from WHS were active in basketball as an interschool game.

FERMAN C. HILKEY, JR. (Hilk)
(Center)

A fast, clever ball handler, plenty of ability and an eye for the basket, has made himself the idol of the fans. He has held his opponent in check in many tight occasions. (42 foul shots—52 field goals—total 146).

DEVON MYERS (Blondie)
(Forward)

This is his third year on the team. He lacked size but he proved to his opponents that this was no handicap to him in getting the ball. He has proven well his ability to the team. (31 foul shots—50 field goals—total 131)

DONALD SMITH (Smitty)
(Forward)

Here is a lad worth remembering. One of the most valuable men on the team. He has demonstrated that he has power on the defense, and fighting spirit. (40 foul shots—100 field goals—total 240)

MYRON JOHNSON (Slaps)
(Forward)

Slaps broke into the first team this year as a regular. He demonstrated his power on defense as well as offense and led the team to victory more than once. (54 foul shots—46 field goals—total 146)

EUGENE BOWMAN (Moe)
(Guard)

Has come up into the footlights this year. Known for his cool-headedness. He played a consistent game on both offense and defense. With his ready wit and ability at handling the ball, he was a valuable asset to the team. (34 foul shots —31 field goals—total 96)

YELL LEADERS

First row: Beverly Duesler, Mary Glant, Mary Lou Bowman.
Second row: Barbara Shull, Darrell Johnson, Roma Baird.

JAMES HAMILTON (Sag)
(Guard)

Sag came to the first team this year as a sub. When he was in there he was always fighting and kept a cool head. He kept the other players hustling for their positions. (3 foul shots—14 field goals—total 31)

JACK MISER (Jack)
(Guard)

Jack's keen interest in basketball and a cool head added much to his ability. He is a Junior and we expect to see more of him next year. (2 foul shots—2 field goals—total 6)

RICHARD WEIRICK (Red)
(Guard)

Red played as a sub this year. He didn't do much scoring but was always in there fighting for the ball. He was noted for his one-handed shots. (6 foul shots—8 field goals—total 22)

ROY WITT (WITT)
(Forward)

One of our most valuable men on the bench. Always ready to go into the game and do his bit for the team. He left mid-school year to join a greater team—the United States Navy. (2 field goals—total 4)

HOWARD BOWMAN (Bowman)
(Guard)

He is a Senior this year and will be a great loss to Waterloo's team. He is a fast player and gives strength to the team by his fast driving. (9 foul shots—11 field goals—total 31)

For many years we have had our dreams
Of grown-up plans and wordly themes,
The time has come, the hour to say
Shall we fulfill these dreams
Or dream our life away?
As an artist I would wield a colorful brush,
Or to portray other's lives, I could be an actress.
Shall I be a singer, to entertain;
Or a teacher, or a nurse, to ease the pain?
Perhaps he will be a doctor, and save many lives,
Or a career of engineering, may be for what he strives.
As a chemist, in his laboratory, he may find
Ways of improving all man-kind.
From his childish stories, great novels may rise
Or buildings he plans, may reach to the skies.
Which profession? It is hard to decide
A lawyer, a banker, or perhaps a bride.
The success we make of our life will depend
On the time, the courage, the effort we spend
In bettering each day, the life that we choose
Determined to win, and never to lose,
We may have trouble, but the clouds will lift,
If we just keep rowing, never stopping to drift.

AT SCHOOL CLOSE

The time has come to say farewell!
For now our term is through;
To sound the present school days' knell.
And bid you a kind adieu.

For months together we have met
And conned our lessons o'er,
And done the best to know and get
A part of learning's store.

Thro' all the days I've labored hard,
And often during night;
Your progress was my sole regard,
Your well-fare my delight.

And thanks for all your favors shown,
For cheer, which toil beguiles;
For roses in my pathway strewn,
For all your love and smiles.

Most fondly do I wish you well,
And hope you each may be,
An ornament where e'er you dwell,
And from all vices free.

Miss Yoder: (To Blondie balancing his chair on two legs) "DeVon I do wish you would sit with all four legs on the floor!"

A Senior stood on a railroad track,
A train was coming fast;
The train got off the railroad track,
To let the Senoir pass!—Seniors.

When to History class I go,
Then I murmur soft and low;
A little prayer whose word I keep,
"Now I lay me down to sleep!—Juniors

The tender little Sophie,
Works hard to get their lessons tough;
The Freshies sweat, the Juniors shirk,
The Seniors—Oh! they bluff!—Sophomores.

Seniors were born for great things,
Juniors were born for small
But it has never been recorded,
Why Freshmen were born at all!—Freshmen.

Freshmen come and Seniors go;
But school goes on for ever!!!

Miss Hasler: (To Darrell imatating a train) "Maybe I had better excuse you to go out and play engine, if you wish."

Darrell: (Gleefully) "Toot-too-too!"

Beverly: "Did you notice the good-looking boy who sat in back of us in the assembly?"

Garcile: "Oh! That handsome boy with the red shirt and tan sweater and had brown wavy hair and smiled so nice? No, I didn't notice him, why?"

Mr. Bowers: "What 3 words are used most in school?"

D. A. Smith: "I don't know."

Mr. Bowers: "Tha't is right!!"

Miss Noffsinger: "What figure of speech is "I love my teacher?"

Tom Farrington: "Sarcasm!"

Were it not,
For this sweet verse;
There would be a joke,
Ten times worse!

If you don't like these jokes,
And the dryness makes you groan;
Just come around occasionally,
With a few of your own!

Mr. Leslie: "Tell us about the Liberty Bell."

Jim Hamilton: "All I know is, that it rings at the end of the eighth period."

R. Bowman: "How long can a person live without brains?"

E. Roop: "I don't know. How old are you?"
